How the Library can help

+ ## With teaching/giving presentations

– Advice on what you can use legally:

- Obtaining copies of published material for Moodle (Library's Scanning Service)

- How to link to material we already own or subscribe to (for Moodle, presentations…)

- Finding material with permission to copy and re-use (licence terms, creative commons licences…)

- Correct attributions and referencing

How the Library can help

+ In publishing your own work

– Advice and support on:

- Publishers' guidelines

- Open Access (OA) Publishing, APCs (Article Processing Charges)

- Using OPUS

- How to check permissions (publisher permissions, 3rd party copyright…)

How the Library can help

+ ## In supporting students

– Advice and guidance via:

* Library web site and printed guides (copyright, referencing, plagiarism)

* Teaching and skills sessions (in Departments, SU Skills programme, PGSkills programme)

* Enquiries (in person in the Library, email, or online)

– About:

* Finding materials, re-using materials (presentations, web pages, theses), referencing …

Further information

+ Library Scanning Service
    – http://www.bath.ac.uk/library/services/scanning.html

+ Finding material (books, articles, images…), referencing
    – Your Subject Librarian
      http://www.bath.ac.uk/library/services/contact/subject.html

+ Publishing and Open Access (OA)
    – Library Research Services: openaccess@bath.ac.uk

+ Copyright and theses
    – http://www.bath.ac.uk/library/subjects/resources/submitting-etheses.html

Not sure who/what?   - copyright@bath.ac.uk

                              - Your Subject Librarian